WORKSHOP:

AN INTRODUCTION TO C.L.I.L. METHODOLOGY

THE MEETING WILL PROVIDE TEACHERS OF CURRICULUM SUBJECTS AND TEACHERS OF ENGLISH WITH A METHODOLOGY TO APPROACH CLIL TAUGHT SUBJECTS AND AN OVERVIEW ON WORK & STUDY COURSES.

MARK LLOYD

PRINCIPAL, KAPLAN INTERNATIONAL ENGLISH
SCHOOL OF BATH & SALISBURY

Theory will be applied to teaching circumstances, by:

- Exploring the relationships between the subject area and English
- Trying out a range of practical, CLIL based classroom activities
- Designing materials and tasks for use in the classroom
- Example workshop with teachers to practice some activities

Eventually, at the end of presentation, we'll talk about Kaplan schools in UK saying how detailed the said methodology is developed in 1 or 2 weeks programs and pointing out cultural visits linked to the taught subject and observation of classes taking place in the school in a normal school day.

After that the course outcome will be highlighted and its timetable
